SIMMONS COLLEGE

BOSTON, MASSACHUSETTS

CLASS OF NINETEEN THIRTY-SEVEN

ETHEL-LOUISE JEWETT, Editor-in-Chief

VIRGINIA RITTER, Business Manager

To

June Richardson Donnelly

in sincere appreciation of her constructive twenty-four year Directorship of the School of Library Science the Class of 1937 dedicates this volume of MICROCOSM

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

One of the lasting satisfactions of a teacher's life is the opportunity to witness the unfolding of a human personality. In the college years for which this volume of Microcosm provides the record of the Class of 1937, we, your teachers, have watched your development with the keenest interest, and it is only natural that we should take pride in your accomplishment as if it were our own. It is so easy for us to forget that your achievement is ours only to the extent that we have been able to provide a setting favorable to your growth. How well we have done this, is for you rather than for us to judge.

Your class has been in College during one of the most trying periods in the history of this country. You entered at a time of great economic uncertainty and you have pursued your course with less assurance that there was a place for you in society than we hope will ever be the case with a subsequent college generation. Yet you have met your difficulties with fortitude and have preserved an even temper in an atmosphere of insecurity.

There are those who will tell you that your college days are the happiest you will ever experience, but I doubt whether any of your teachers would subscribe to that view. We have known too much of the sacrifices which many of your number have been forced to make in order to bring your college careers to a successful conclusion, and we are too well aware of the growing satisfactions which come with the larger responsibilities of adult living.

As you leave us to enter upon new phases of life, you take with you our sincere wishes for your future usefulness and happiness. And when, from time to time, you look back upon your college days through the eyes of Microcosm, we hope you will value increasingly your association with Simmons College.

Our Alma Mater

I. Our Alma Mater, to us you give
Ideals which teach us how to live,
Courage to help us to see things through,
Power our life work to do.

Chorus

Life will be richer for knowing you,
Brighter our land will be,
Service we've learned of you,
Service strong, fine and true
Service, which brings liberty.

II. We may be needed to save our land,
You have made ready brain and hand
Taught us to labor and never rest
'Till we have done our best.

Namque est meminisse voluptas.
For it is a pleasure, too, to remember.

Ovid — Heroides.

The Fens

The Fens are shadow rapt, misty and gray
Dim trees sway dreamily at close of day
Hushed is the city's roar, white is the moon,
Time will swing shut the door of college soon.
These are the things we loved: Prom memories,
The Blueship's candlesticks, dances and teas,
Stepsinging, lanterns bright, specials at East,
Thursday of reading News, one show at least.
These are the things we'll take through the closed door
These are the things we'll love forever more.

Student Government Association

Every student is a member of the Student Government Association, the most important organization at Simmons College. From this body a committee of twelve, known as Student Government Council, is elected which meets weekly to regulate student problems.

Besides performing its routine duties, this year's Council has aimed to make itself felt in the college life as an active interested body, eager and ready to help solve student problems, and as a representative committee, worthy of the confidence of the student body. In attempting to gain these ends Council has this year inaugurated a weekly column in the News; made several changes in the Student Government Constitution; and has thoroughly investigated, and progressed noticeably in improving the smoking facilities in the College building.

Dormitory Council

Dormitory Council has control of dormitory affairs and is charged with the enforcement of the Simmons Code and all other Student Government regulations affecting campus life.

All recommendations for the betterment of dormitory life arise from this Council which are sent first to the Student Government Council for ratification, and then to Advisory Board for final sanction.

This Council is composed of the Vice-President of Student Government, who acts as Chairman, and all House Chairmen. It meets once a month to regulate dormitory life, to make or to annul rules, as well as to offer suggestions for encouraging dormitory social life.

This year Council has tried to anticipate the desires of the resident students and to cooperate with Student Government Council and its various branches in the aim of attaining a more unified and efficient-ruling student body.

Chairman . . . . . Helen Chandler
Secretary . . . . . Edith Smith

Honor Committee

The establishment of the Simmons Honor Code was done with an eye in the direction of bettering the standards of the students as well as those of the College Administration. Student Government to be effective and worthwhile must be maintained by the students, for the students. Honesty is one of our important strongholds of group living, in college as well as out. Thus, in fairness to ourselves and to our associates, Honor Committee was created as that part of Student Government which primarily educates the student body in the ideals prescribed by the Honor Code; and secondly, deals directly with any breach of academic dishonesty.

Registration in Simmons College is a written promise to respect and uphold the College Honor Code at all times. The Committee is headed by a Senior as Chairman; and each class is duly represented by three Seniors, three Juniors, one Sophomore, and one Freshman. These members are elected by Student Government, with the President and Vice-President of Student Government as members ex-officio.

Dormitory Board

Within Dormitory Council there exists a Dormitory Board composed of ten members: Vice-President of Student Government who is chairman of the Board; three Seniors; two Juniors; one Sophomore; and one Freshman elected by the Dormitory Council. The President of Student Government, and the Chairman of Honor Committee are members ex-officio.

Before this Board come the students who have disregarded or been mistaken about dormitory regulations. It is the Board's aim, however, to educate the student in the Council's policies rather than to inflict exemplary punishment.

Dormitory Advisory Committee

The Advisory Committee was formed to aid Student Government in dormitory problems. It is composed of the Dean; three members of the instructing staff who are graduates of Simmons, appointed by the President; and three members of Student Government Council.

All dormitory rules and questions proposed by Student Government are referred to this Committee, which discusses them freely. On the basis of the opinions expressed in these meetings the Dean accepts or rejects the submitted proposals.

Academy

Academy is the Simmons Honor Society. Membership is based on one's record in academic subjects, since the object of the Society is to foster an interest in those studies which are not technical or professional.

Academy took a musical flair this year when Mr. Willi Apel, one of Germany's foremost musicologists, was invited to be guest speaker at the formal dinner in November which welcomed the new Junior members. At one of the monthly teas student representatives from each school discussed the unique aspects of their work. An interesting array of teas, with one evening meeting at North Hall, was climaxed in March, just previous to the spring vacation, by a celebration of movies.

American Student Union

The Simmons chapter of the American Student Union is one of the many in the country, working for Peace, Academic Freedom, Economic Security, and Equality.

The Simmons A. S. U. is divided into four groups: Peace, Socio-Economics, Politics, and Religion and Philosophy. These groups enable students, through instructive meetings and speeches, to acquaint themselves with and to investigate current economic, political, and social problems, in order to take action on them.

The A. S. U. hopes to stimulate student thought on contemporary problems, to create a firm student opinion on them, and to help towards solving these problems.

Anne Strong Club

The Anne Strong Club, organized in 1933 in honor of the first Director of the Simmons Nursing School, has as its primary aim the social co-ordination of the various phases in the five-year program. Students who have advanced to the august stage of hospital experience are open to questioning by the neophytes at these monthly get-togethers. Interesting speakers in the medical and social fields of nursing are engaged for the meetings.

Gone are the days of undergraduate black shoes and stockings, for now the spotless white ones are a traditional part of the Simmons uniform. The standard Simmons cap was conferred for the first time to the "pioneer" Junior class of the re-organized five-year plan, at the January, 1937, meeting of the Anne Strong Club.

May these advances be a greater stimulus for the continued pursuit of the true nursing standards of Anne Strong!

Art Guild

With this issue of Microcosm the Art Guild celebrates its second year of activity. Founded on the medieval guild idea, the aim of the club is to arouse interest in the arts and crafts at Simmons College.

Three successful activities have marked this year's work for the Guild. The first was the travelling exhibition from the Museum of Modern Art in New York, which the Art Guild brought to Simmons in December. This group of pictures was hung in the Lounge for the two weeks preceding Christmas vacation. The interest it aroused and the information it dispensed more than repaid the Guild for their efforts in obtaining it.

Classes in block printing and photography sponsored by the Guild have met each week throughout the year. The block printing group made Christmas cards under the direction of Miss Gardner. The photography class has taken pictures, developed, and printed them under the direction of Mr. Stearns.

The club also provides interesting speakers in the field of arts and crafts. Girls who are not interested in either block printing or photography find at the meetings interesting and current information from the world of art.

Christian Science Organization

The Christian Science Organization offers to those girls so desiring it an opportunity to widen their knowledge of Christian Science and to associate with others interested in its good works.

Testimonial meetings are held on the second and fourth Mondays of the month to which all students and faculty are welcome. The members of the Organization have taken several field trips this year to Mary Baker Eddy's home and other places of interest to Christian Scientists.

One lecture on Christian Science is given each year by some member of the Board of Lectureship of the Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, in Boston.

Dramatic Association

The Dramatic Association has completed another successful year of theatrical activities. We attempted to make our organization appeal to everyone in the theatre, regardless of whether or not they had any thespian ability. In several of our meetings members demonstrated their talents by the presentation of short skits and plays.

The annual Competitive Plays were acclaimed a singular success, both in their selection and as finished products. The All-College Play, again presented in collaboration with the Massachusetts Institute of Technology Dramashop, proved the greater excellence of "real" men in a production.

Ellen Richards Club

All the Science School students are eligible to join Ellen Richards Club, an organization that stimulates interest in the sciences and promotes good fellowship among its members.

The main scientific events of the year consist of monthly teas with prominent scientists as guest speakers, scientific films, and tours through industrial laboratories and dairies.

Early in the fall it is not an unusual experience to be startled by a "hollow" groan, an eerie scream, or even a vile odor from the Physics dark-room. It is not the cause for alarm, however, it is only Ellen Richards Club "initiation" in the scientists' own inimitable fashion.

With December, comes Ellen Richards Birthday party with a huge "bunsen burner" birthday cake and candles. The science faculty joins with the students in this celebration.

Ellen Richards, in whose honor the club is named, was not a graduate of Simmons Science School, as one might think, but rather the first woman graduate of Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

English Club

Every year the English School is growing, and along with it grows the English Club. This year the English Club has tried to increase its enrollment; to give the English School members a chance to meet and talk about their common interests in the literary field; to give them a chance to meet their faculty members outside of classes; and above all to give them a snap-shot view of the professional world which they will enter after graduation.

Who knows — another Shakespeare may be found over a tea-cup at Simmons!

Forum

Forum brings to the dormitory student a chance to hear what is going on in the world around us through the eyes of competent speakers. It meets approximately once a month and provides an opportunity for the girls to have questions answered, usually on historical or social subjects about which they would like to know more.

Forum has had as speakers this year Miss Fishtine, Mr. Phillip Jacobs, Mr. Tryon, and Dr. Gay.

Chairman . . . . . Frances Cartland

Home Economics Club

The Simmons Home Economics Club is an organization devoted to the interests and benefit of students in the school of Home Economics.

Its aim is threefold: (1) to promote interest in professional societies, through affiliation with the Massachusetts Home Economics Association, the New England Home Economics Association, and the American Home Economics Association, and to acquaint its members with Home Ec'ers in other colleges through joint meetings with other clubs in Massachusetts and by sending a delegate to the national convention each year.

(2) To take an organized part in the life of the college through its catering, mending service, and food sales, and by co-operation with other students and faculty.

(3) To provide friendly social gatherings for its members in monthly teas and an annual banquet. Contact with the outside world and what it offers to Home Economists is given by various speakers at these monthly teas.

Home Economics Club welcomes to its membership each girl in its field.

Menorah Society

The Menorah Society brings the Jewish students of Simmons into closer contact with each other and with the student bodies of other colleges. It further promotes the study of Jewish ideals and culture.

The Menorah holds its meetings the first Tuesday in each month usually in the form of a tea at which there is a guest speaker. Two formal dances are held each year — one in the fall and one in the spring. Joint meetings and dances are held with the other colleges of the Intercollegiate Menorah Association.

This year a study group has been organized which meets twice a month with the purpose of gaining a better knowledge of Jewish background and problems. Each year the Menorah awards a scholarship to a worthy Jewish student.

Microcosm

Microcosm, Simmons College's "little world," is an accurate and complete record of a year's activities at the College, both serious and humorous.

Mic is financed by its formal dance, held this year at the Hotel Copley-Plaza on October 29; its advertisements; contributions from College organizations; and of course its subscriptions. What money is left after the book is published goes into the Microcosm Scholarship Fund, the granting of which is supervised by the College Scholarship Committee.

Every member of the Staff has her important role to play in the publishing of Mic which gives her that certain satisfying feeling of accomplishment that results in the completion of a long but interesting task.

Musical Association

The Glee Club's program has been marked with innovations this year. In the Fall, members of the club gave a group of representative period selections for the Music Appreciation Class.

At Christmas, the traditional Vespers Concert was offered to a capacity audience in the Lounge.

The outstanding event of the year was the presentation in the Refectory of a Gilbert and Sullivan night, consisting of "Trial by Jury" and selections from "H. M. S. Pinafore," "Iolanthe," and "Patience." Glee Club members made their own costumes and planned the settings. The whole performance was under the able direction of Mr. Lyle R. Ring, who is completing his second year as leader of the Club.

Newman Club

All Catholic students at Simmons College are automatically members of the Newman Club, which is in turn an active member of the New England Province of the Federation of College Catholic Clubs.

Each month, the Club holds a meeting, either a tea in the Lounge with a guest speaker, or a joint meeting with another college. In the past year, two supper meetings were held at M. I. T. Besides these meetings, there is an annual formal dance, which was held in January this year. The members of Newman Club are also cordially invited to the activities of the New England Province Federation of College Catholic Clubs.

Per-Simmons

Per-Simmons is no longer the shy, awkward "child" of former years but is now a poised and complete "person." This year both the size and the variety of contributions have been increased. The literary magazine of a college so diversified in aims must necessarily cater to diversified interests. Although it is under the management of the English School, it tries to be the organ of all Schools at Simmons.

An innovation this year is the guest faculty contributor. An essay with a foreign flavor, an article on Surrealism, and short stories have increased the popularity of the magazine.

Line drawings done by one of the students, artistic covers, and pertinent cuts have made the entire lay-out more attractive.

Departments have been created on books, music, and intellectual current events. These departments are written by the staff and give to the magazine an added zest.

Poetry Club

Do we picture the flowing tie, the soulful gaze of genius in the Poetry Club? Oh no! It is a group of girls with a lively interest in poetry and poets. At the teas, held once a month, they hear their own members, those of the faculty, or outside authorities discuss pertinent phases.

Sometimes the girls attempt creations of their own, with aid and valuable criticisms from Mr. DeMille, our enthusiastic and helpful faculty adviser, and their fellow members. The Poetry Contest was our attempt to stimulate an interest in and appreciation of poetry, and creative ability on the part of the whole college.

Poster Committee

Posters! All sizes, shapes, and colors, attract the eyes of all who enter the front door of Simmons. Some remind us of dances, others teas, meetings, and assemblies — in fact almost all activities that go on within the college.

The Poster Committee, in spite of depletions in its ranks, has striven this year toward greater artistic skill, as well as promptness and efficiency.

The annual contest in the Spring, when the outstanding posters made during the year are exhibited, is the Committee's biggest event and inspiration.

Chairman . . . . . Elizabeth Lautz
Treasurer . . . . . Esther Currier

Scout Club

The Simmons Girl Scout Club enables a Scout, when she has completed high school and attends college, to carry on her interest in Scouting. The club purposes to keep and increase this interest.

No attempt is made to conduct weekly meetings, but rather monthly meetings of a social type are held. Included among the activities for the year have been teas with speakers, supper meetings, a Settlement House party, and an overnight trip to Cedar Hill, in Waltham.

By such meetings and associations with other Scouts the Club promotes good fellowship and develops a sense of well-being that is consistent with the full life of an adult individual.

Simmons News

The Simmons News is the weekly paper published by the students for the students. There are over seventy girls on the staff who all do their part toward making up the paper as a whole. It comes out every Thursday and is given away free.

In the News we try to maintain high standards of writing and originality. Our aim is to give the students, in an efficient way, a timely news coverage of all the activities that take place in the college and to present to them several features, in both serious and humorous veins, such as book reviews, art, drama, and every-day happenings.

News has several teas throughout the year with different newspaper men and women of the metropolitan papers as guest speakers. Our biggest activity is News Dance which is the highlight of the year with its traditional dance programs, decorations and gaiety.

The Simmons News is one of the most important and influential undergraduate activities which benefits the college as a whole as well as the members of the Staff.

Social Activities Committee

The Social Activities Committee was organized three years ago to promote more social life on campus and at the Freshman dormitories. This purpose was carried out by having faculty members to dinner informally every other Wednesday evening, and having coffee served in South Hall for the faculty guests and students after dinner; by having formal dinners three times a year when each house invited two guests and had coffee served in their houses afterwards; and by having exchange dinners between campus and freshman dormitory girls. Small informal dances in the houses on campus are also sponsored by the committee.

The Social Activities Committee believes that through these social contacts students may develop a sense of social responsibility and an awareness of their place in society, not merely as onlookers, but as active participants.

The committee is composed of two members from each class.

Unity Club

The Simmons Unity Club brings together the students and faculty of all Protestant faiths. It promotes friendships, and stimulates the exchange of beliefs and opinions in regard to religion, national affairs, and life, usually accomplished through the medium of a speaker. Ample time is reserved for informal chats with the speaker over a cup of tea after the meeting has adjourned.

Besides its monthly meetings, the Unity Club is active in its participation at conferences, Town and Gown dances, and the Boston Unitarian-Universalist Student Council. In the spring the Club holds its own formal dance at one of the smaller hotels in Boston.

Y. W. C. A.

The Simmons Y. W. C. A. sets for its goal a "full, creative life" for all students of the college. With access to the hospitable rooms of the Metropolitan Student Headquarters on Stuart Street, we have been able to have suppers, discussion groups of intercollegiate as well as local nature, and many pleasant evenings spent before a blazing birchwood fire among pleasant surroundings and friendly associations.

"Y" fosters groups for discussion and action on religious, social, and political topics. At the Friday afternoon teas guest speakers offer philosophic and instructive viewpoints on contemporary problems; after which the kitchenette yields sustenance in appetizing form.

020 Club

The 020 Club is the official organization of the Library School to which all Juniors, Seniors and Graduate students belong. The Club brings all members of the Library School together at frequent teas; acquaints them with all workers in the field; and fosters a sense of professionalism.

The first meeting of the season was a German coffee party with Mr. Klein as guest speaker. At the mid-winter tea, the club offered a movie of Ginling College, China, Library School, explained by its founder Mrs. Thurston. Later Miss Blunt of the faculty gave a most interesting account of her recent trip around the world.

Although "020" sounds mysterious, it is really a symbol for "Library Economy" and stands for our profession.

Simmons Athletic Association

The Simmons Athletic Association has strived to provide a method and a means of enabling all girls to satisfactorily work off that bit of excess energy and desire for companionable activity which at one time or another makes us all crave for something more than setting-up exercises or a climb to the Library.

This year we have found enthusiasts for field hockey, basketball, swimming, life-saving, riding, archery, golf, volley-ball, tennis, and ping-pong. Our desire to add athletically to the social life of college has brought teas, banquets, dances, and winter sport week-ends as well as the organized sports.

Stand by Simmons

I.

Do you know a college that is in Boston town,
And can you spell the name?
Many a year she's lived and she has gained renown
Living longer, growing stronger, adding to her fame.
And we all

Chorus

Stand by Simmons and the blue and gold,
Give a loyalty that true hearts hold,
S-i-m-m-o-n-s forever,
Stand by Simmons today.

II.

Greece and Russia send their daughters across the sea
To study by her plan;
Here they flock from France and Norway, Italy,
Some from Asia, Polynesia, and from far Japan,
And they all

Chorus

III.

Keep the lamp John Simmons lighted so long ago,
Still burning bright today,
Ours the task to tend it and to make it glow,
Failing never, and forever show in work and play
That we all

Chorus

Nothing now is left
But a majestic memory.

Around the Corner

Our shop at 133 Brookline Avenue is only a short walk from Simmons. It is a convenient place to obtain foods for spreads, teas, or in-between bites; and here also one finds a splendid selection of candies, cakes, cookies and toilet articles.

CANDY — the very best in delicious chocolates, bon bons, caramels and hard candies.

CAKES — quite unusual cup cakes, petits fours, macaroons, cookies, Danish pastry and other dainties — all made in our own bakery kitchen on the premises.

GOOD FOODS — sandwich spreads, foods for the chafing dish, crackers, bread, butter, fruit confections, tea, coffee — in as small a quantity as you want TOILET ARTICLES — the most extensive assortment in New England of perfumes and other toilet articles. Many perfumes may be purchased by the dram.

Telephone LAFayette 2140 and 2141

The Weathervane on Faneuil Hall is a heavy copper grasshopper fashioned by the hand of Deacon Shem Drowne in 1742. It fell to the ground during the earthquake that visited Boston in 1775. It suffered a like fate when Faneuil Hall was burned in 1761 and again by accident in 1889. But though often repaired it is still in place above the dome on the CRADLE OF LIBERTY.

FOR DISCRIMINATING
COLLEGIANS

Equal parts of gayety and youth with a dash of subtle sophistication is our recipe for collegiate fashions. You'll find at Stearns colorful campus knitteds, casual cutfits for the classroom and date frocks for dinner and formals, at prices to meet every budget. And those important accessories that "make" every costume are here too.
